CAMPUS RESEARCH DAY FEATURES 387 STUDENTS

Library sponsored event sets new record for number of student participants

Campus Research Day, held on April 12, 2016, highlighted the scholarly activities of 387 Southern Adventist University students.

"Campus Research Day is a wonderful celebration of the research, inquiry, and pursuit of truth that is happening on our campus," stated Katie McGrath, Campus Research Day chair. "Our students go the extra mile to make this a success; I am so proud of them and their work!"

Departments represented in the event include the following: English, biology, chemistry, history, journalism and communications, nursing, physical education, visual art, physics/engineering, psychology, and social work.

In participating in Campus Research Day, students gain real-world experience conducting a professional presentation. Students also have the opportunity to publish their research on KnowledgeExchange@Southern, Southern Adventist University's institutional repository.

Special thanks to Katie McGrath and Pamela Jansen for organizing and coordinating the event and to all the faculty who assisted students with research.

FOCUS ON WRITING: MLA UPDATE FOR 2016

New MLA writing guidelines for 2016 mean big changes for the next academic year

"The Modern Language Association (MLA) has updated its guidelines for student writers in the 8th edition of the MLA Handbook (2016). As a service to users of Bedford/St. Martin's textbooks, we offer this overview of the major changes in

Dr. Sonja Fordham

MLA style.

Notable Changes

- MLA uses the organizing principle of "container." A container might be an anthology, a periodical, a Web site, a television program, a database, an online archive, etc. Basically, containers are enclosed by periods, with commas used for the elements within the containers....
- Use et al. for three or more authors in works cited entries and in in-text citations.

- Use p. and pp. for all page numbers in works cited entries.
- Spell out editor, translator, edited by, etc. Continue to abbreviate vol. for "volume" and ed. for "edition" in works cited entries.
- Indent for long quotations in text is now ½ inch (not 1 inch).

- If the publisher name is the same as the Web site title, omit the publisher name." (Bedford/St. Martin's, 2016)

For more information about the changes to MLA guidelines, visit <https://www.mla.org/MLA-Style/What-s-New-in-the-Eighth-Edition>.
